DU WEWE FOR ALL

From the Parisian.

One of the most prominent and influential Parisians of the day is, undoubtedly, the man who in the Petit Journal, signs his articles "Thomas Grimm." His real name is Henri Escofficer. He is 43 years old, and hails

From the south.

From the day in 1863, when he entered the office of the Petit Journal, to this, Escofficer has been prominent before the public. Now he wrote a feuilleton, now a chronique, always in the clear and intelligible style that is peculiarly his own.

Thomas Grimm is, like all great journalists, a great worker. In the evening he hurries to his little house, near the woods of Vincennes, and in the company of his wife and son, for-gets the hurry and fever of Parisian life. Every fine morning he strolls out with his young four-year-old, and comes home again for breakfast, the boy on his back and loaded with field flowers

Thomas Grimm is a man of medium height, manly and upright. His nose is prominent and so are the lips; the eyes are gentle, the hair is brown.

Thomas Grimm is a moderate Republican. In his articles he appeals to the intelligence rather than to the passion of his readers, and conveys to them, under the easy form of a chronique, the most valuable lessons.

His services in behalf of the Republicae cause during the 16th May period have produced him the merited reward of the cross of the Legion of Honor.

Wanted to see the Rinktum.

He opened the door cautiously, and poking his head in in a suggestive sort of way, as if there was more to follow, d: "Is this the editorial rinktum?" 'The what, my friend?" 'Is this the rinktum—sinktum, sanctum or some such place where the editors live?" "This is the editorial room; yes, sir. Come in." "No, I guess I won't come in. I wanted to see what a rink-tum was like, that's all. It looks like our garret, only wuss. Good day."—

MANUFACTURER OF

A Fragrant Breath and Pearly Teeth Are easily obtained by cleansing your teeth cally with that justly popular dentifrice, SO-ZODONT. Composed of rare antiseptic herbs, it imparts whiteness to the toeth, a delicious aroma to the breath, and preserves intact, from youth to old age, the teeth. Acidity of the stomach will destroy the strongest teeth unless its effects are counteracted with SOZODONT, and this pure tooth-wash protects the dental surfaces by removing every impurity that adheres to them. Ask your druggist for SOZODONT.

CAMPAIGN PAPERS.

For one dollar we will send the Daily GAZETTE until November 5th, and the Weekly for fifty cents.

STRONG DEMOCRATIC ENDORSE-

"I will tell you whom I think the Republicans should nominate, and whom I consider THEIR STRONG-EST MAN; he is a TRUE MAN, A not injured by the fire. MAN OF PRINCIPLE, AN HON-EST MAN, AND WOULD MAKE A GOOD PRESIDENT FOR US twenty-nile riding race at Minneapo-BEST MAN you could nominate. I of California and Miss Jewett of Minrefer to General JAMES A. GAR- nesota. Another match, between FIELD, of Ohio."-[Thomas A. Hendricks, 1876.

"I have been his devoted friend for nany years, and I am resolved that I ever will believe that be does not deserve the affection that I have bestowed upon him. If he would carry the principles which regulate his pri the surface of deep water, and attain vate life into his public conduct, HE a fair degree of speed. WOULD MAKE THE BEST CHIEF MAGISTRATE THAT WE HAVE EVER HAD."-[Jere Black.

In the midst of the organized carni val of corruption which has been going on now for so many weary months nd years at Washington, it is really satisfactory to catch glimpses now and then of HONESTY FOR HONESTY'S SAKE, and without consideration of party. General GARFIELD, of death. Ohio, is a Republican of Republicans, but it is his simple due, which we gladly pay to him, to admit that HE HAS DONE MORE THAN ANY OTHER SINGLE MEMBER OF HIS PARTY, during the late session of Congress, to show that it is not impossible for a man to act with a Congressional majori'y, and yet to KEEP HIS SELF-RESPECT AND THE RESPECT OF HONEST MEN .-[New York World, before Garfield was a candidate.

THE CAPTAIN'S CARD.

A DOAN posing the traveling bilk and not the resident bilk. Surely, the man who locates in a town and robs everybody he does business with, is far more dangerous than the one who spends a few days in a place, and then goes

We dany that we want to beat Capt. Gilson's nomination. It would be the hest thing that could happen to the ments of the Democratic party, for he would beat the whole ticket. We exposed the man because w know of men who have entrusted their business to him and been bilked, and we want to warn the farmers and business men of Washoe county agains him. He is not worthy of confidence and no one should make him his agent, but there is no company that we know of that will issue a policy on his order, unless the cash goes with When the contract was let for which he is Secretary, he was paid a of it. He called it "fees as attorney."
The Chinameu say be sinformed them that there was another contract in at the same price as theirs, and if they uld give him a thousand dollars, he would give it to them. The Chius-man who did the business only had bout three bundred dollars on him at time, and he gave him that, taking the receipt spoken of above. He ways that he afterward paid Gibon the balance. Let some one ask Mr. Hil-ton, or Donald McKay, or John Kleppe how he manages by or fellow who got him to send for his money the other day. He sen his his own name, and when the would swear to this in court. He wa expelled from the Odd Fellows' lodge and Encampment a couple of weeks ago, and there are charges against him now in the Knights of Pythias Lodge. We can fill the paper with little anecdotesif anybody wants them.

THE BANK STATEMENT.

Mr. Boyd's statement of the affairs. f the Reno Savings Bank appears to day. We understand that it is taken off the face of the books at the close of the last day's business, so that it does not give the present condition exactly. There were money and securities drawn out since to the amount of twenty-five or thirty thousand dollars. On the whole the statement is more favorable than was expected, and the chances for creditors getting some dividends is good. The action of the Trustees in instructing Mr. Boyd to collect debts and pay the money out to creditors will be approved by every body.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

What a Reno Man up North Thinks About the Gazette and His Surround

SHEEP CAMP, Or., Aug. 31. Editor Gazette:- I received your paper beside some back and odd numbers of the GAZETTE. They came as a bright vision, far away out here in the $35, and held by them while the stage mountains. The eight of a good news-paper from home is better than meet-telling him that he would probably ing an old friend.

I have been to Roseburg, O., and moved a band of sheep to Goose Lake valley on the way to Nevada, for the Reno market this winter. I have seen a good deal of southern and eastern Oregon this summer, and don't like it; it is cold, too cold for any thing-Water has frozen in my camp kettles for the last three nights, and I am only a mile and a half from Lakeview, low down in the valley. I like the country around Roseberg, but it rained every day that I was there. The much-talked of Rogue River valley is a nice place,—what there is of it—but the valley is all hills, and Goose Lake valley is wet and cold. The farmers and stock men raise a few vegetables, but they can cut lots of hay. Evans has cut about 800 tons Evans has cut about 800 tons and the other stock men proportionally as much. Hay was cut last year and all fed, and yet about one half the cattle and nearly all the sheep from Regue river to Honey lake died last would be met. Toby had go t down from winter. It is a good graying country the top and was looking at the ground winter. It is a good grazing country in the summer, and there are miles of nice timber when the railroad gets through tomake an outlet. Puck.

THE BODIE ROAD.

Bighwaymen -Full Particulars of The Affray.

The Bodie Free Press has come to hand with the following full particulars of the robberies of last Saturday night and Sunday morning.

SATURDAY NIGHT'S OPERATION.

On Saturday night, as the Bodiebound stage from Carson was passing the identical spot near Dalzell's, where it had been robbed on the two previous occasions, Cambridge, the same driver who was the victim both times before, was ordered to "Halt!" and he accordingly stopped histeam. James Cross, of Candelaria, and Col. Davies, of Carson, were on top, and when they did not throw up their hands quick enough, one of the robbers sang out: "Throw up your hands, G-d d-n quick, or I'll blow your d-n brains out!" It is needless to say that their fins went up lively. Cross, thinking he might be taken for a messenger, said: "There are no messengers aboard," To which they responded, in query: "There are no messengers on board? Get down then." There were eight passengers aboard, among them E. H. Fontecilla, of the Free Press job office, Col. T. W. W. Davies, W. W. Dunlap, Louis Corbel, Mrs. Miller, James Cross, Miss Kroft and Mrs. B. B. Norton. The passengers were all stood up in a row, with their hands over their heads, and while one rifle from behind, the other went through them for arms. Only one revolver was found, when the pass gers were permitted to sit on the ground. The boxes were chained in the boot, but one of the robbers got them out without much trouble, and lragged them into the sage-brush hort distance off, where them with a hammer and cold-chisel This being completed he came back and told his partner what he had got. "Is that all?" said he. "Shall we go through the passengers?" "No," considerately replied the first-named. "I don't like to rob passengers." The passengers were then ordered to return into the stage, which they did, and were afterward allowed to proceed on

Before the robbery of the up stage. Mr. Gallagher, of Mt. Grant, on his way from Aurora to Pine Grove, was stopped by these men and robbed of

THE SECOND ROBBERY.

The stage which left Bodie at 5 o'clock Saturday evening was met by the up stage about two and one-half hours afterward, near the Elbow. This stage had on board Messengers Mike several times to look at the road and see if the trail of the robbers was still the top and was looking at the ground in front of the leaders, when he was hailed, and two shots were fired—one at him, which killed the near leader, and the other passing between the driver and Billings, on the coach. Toly ran back and Billings handed nim his gun, at the same timeslipping to the ground himself and to the of the coach, where also Woodruff joined them. A short parley ensued. The smaller man of the two said: The smaller man of the two said: "Il you fellows fire a gun we will murder every s—n of a b—h of you." 'Nobody is firing any guns," said Toby. 'what's the matter with you? If you want anything, come along." The man advanced, and as he came in the light Toby fired, killing him instantly. The horses were immping about so that horses were jumping about so that Billings started up on the off side to quiet them; but before he got to them he saw the other robber coming down that side, but the fellow did no appear to see him. Billings, who was unarmed, got back behind the stage, and said: "Boys, he is coming flown on this side." Woodruff then stepped out, took deliberate aim and fired, and nearly the same time Toby was bring-ing down his gun also to fire, and did fire it, but not before the robber had dashed a pistol ball into his arm, which destroyed the aim. The robber then ran off into the bushes, and Woodruff

There is little doubt that these fellows are the same that robbed the Carson stages two months ago, that fired at Finney on Monday night, and that robbed the Bellville and Candelaria

There was not a shred of clothing on the remains when they were discovered. If the unfortunate her death, her garments must have been torn away by the wheels, or sub equently stripped from the body by human vultures.

One of the strangest circumstances of the affair was the disappearance of the head. It had been in some way carried off before the finding of the body. There are suspicious circum-stances connected with the affair. It s possible that the head had been chopped off, and the body brought to the track and left there in order to make the death of the poor victim ap-
